Other change We have gone back to the application process used in 2007, and therefore the paperwork burden is the same as 2007 application. In the previous version v3 we used a two-stage process as requested by the Russian Ministry of Education and Science. But after much deliberation, the U.S. and the Russian Federation decided not to use the two-stage application process and to go back to 2007 process. Thus in this latest version all reference to the pre-application stage has been taken out. This change request in 83 C for version v4 is to revert back to the 2007 burden. The program objectives and priorities remain unchanged.
